The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Enclosed for your information and use is a committee print just released by the Senate Constitutional Rights Subcommittee. It contains the results of a survey conducted by the subcommittee among heads of federal departments and agencies to obtain descriptions of their policies on withholding of information from the press and public, and copies of statutory and administrative authorities cited for such practices.

In the absence of Senator Hennings, who is in the hospital recovering from an operation, I am taking the liberty of thanking you for your cooperation in the subcommittee's study.

Further, I would like to ask the following:

- (1) Have there been any significant changes in your basic information policies since this survey was made? If so, what were they?
- (2) Do you contemplate subsequent changes in your basic information policies?

Your continued cooperation will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Charles H. Slayman, Jr.
